

Making Beautiful Things 2024

Three Pines
studio

“The house is a place for people to love and
to live,
to meet and
to think.”

Beth Kephart

Summer 2024 begins Three Pines Studio's 25th year as a working studio and gallery.

My late husband, Gene Reck and I built our studio believing in the importance of the arts and craft tradition and our desire to surround our neighbors and visitors with beautiful hand-made things. Talented local artists are represented on the gallery walls at exhibitions and events.

This year the wonderfully poetic picture book, Beautiful Useful Things, What William Morris Made, by award-winning author Beth Kephart and illustrator Melodie Stacey, is our guide to creativity and adventure and will be featured in a story hour and workshop.

The studio doors are opened for artists of all ages and levels to develop their creativity and express themselves through workshops that offer a unique opportunity to explore various mediums and techniques in workspaces indoors and under the sunshades in the garden.

Whether you're a seasoned artist or just beginning to discover your artistic side, our workshops are designed to inspire and ignite your passion for making beautiful things. Come join our vibrant community of fellow art enthusiasts, where you'll not only learn new skills but also forge lasting friendships.

Let's create something beautiful together this year!

Painting Workshop (Registration required)

PAINTING DIRECT: CONTEMPORARY IMPRESSIONISM

EN PLEIN AIR

Heidi Marshall

July 11 & 12, 11am-4pm, $400

A two-day plein air class, for all levels, that concentrates on seeing and responding to the landscape. It also concentrates on where you are in your painting journey. This class includes the study of all of the elements that make up a painting created in nature: value, composition, edges, juxtapositions and techniques. We will talk about how to visualize a painting in your mind's eye. Bring your medium of choice, enough small surfaces to paint on up to 9x12, a sketchbook and portable easel. Please visit threepinesstudio.com for more information and supply list.

Sidewalk Chalk Workshop (Registration required)

DAVID ZINN DEMO AND WORKSHOP

July 25, 1-2:30pm, $50

David shares his whimsical and innovative sidewalk art. Make the world your canvas! Artist David Zinn has charmed millions of followers worldwide with his whimsical and innovative sidewalk art! David will show you how to create your own ephemeral masterpieces underfoot using chalk, charcoal and an unfettered imagination. Be prepared to kneel, stoop or sit; kneepads or towels may be useful. All other materials are included. 8+ years. Class size limited.

Paper Workshops (Registration required)

PIÑATAS: CELEBRATE FRIDA!

Zina Castañuela

June 27 & 28, 12-4pm, $85

Growing up, my mother made us piñatas for each of our birthdays. She made our favorite cake, blew up balloons, hung streamers and made take-home treats, but it was always the piñata that I looked forward to most.

Piñatas were originally created to be ephemeral items used to celebrate life's journeys. Building these colorful art forms is just as much fun as cracking them open! Working with local paper artist, Zina Castañuela, workshop participants will create their own piñata from different kinds of paper including handmade, newspaper and magazines in celebration of the life of Frida Kahlo. Class will be held outside under tents. Please dress for the weather. Class size: 10. All ages welcome. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Supply list will be emailed after registration.

Finished piñatas will dry at the studio and be installed July 5 as part of the Frida Kahlo Birthday Party. Break your piñata open at the party or take it home to enjoy.

INTRODUCTION TO PAPERMAKING AND PULP

Zina Castañuela

August 9, 11am-5pm, $100

Paper is a playful and mysterious art medium. It all starts with the pulp and can be transformed into sculpture, drawings and paintings and can create wonderfully textured work.

In this workshop you will learn the basics of hand papermaking. Using cotton fiber, you will learn sheet forming and pigmentation as well as an introduction to using pulp as a painting medium. We will also explore the properties and uses of other fibers. Class will be held outside under tents. Please dress for the weather. Papermaking is a very wet and sometimes messy process. Please wear waterproof shoes or sandals. Aprons will be provided. Class size: 8. All ages are welcome. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Supply list will be emailed after registration. Your paper will dry at the studio and may be picked up or mailed to you.
